

Vayigash Answers

1. Yehuda humbled himself and accepted responsibility
2. He let go of his bitterness and saw God's hand
3. Egypt's purpose is to bless Israel. Will submit to Yeshua
4. It is an allusion to our new life in Yeshua. We need to walk in peace and accept differences
5. He looked to the Lord for guidance. Renewed the covenant, after sacrifice, worship, and surrender
6. He was restored to leadership after repentance and acceptance of responsibility. All will follow Yehuda in the end time
7. They were sent in a blessed and protected place, separated from Egypt
8. He complained but did not glorify God. Realized his failures. He honored the authority placed by God
9. Only Yeshua can satisfy our needs. All will be subject to Yeshua