

Lech Lecha Answers

1. God forces to leave the world behind to receive his blessings. He give us time to do it
2. Reiterate his blessings as result of obedience. Build an altar and call upon YHWH name
3. God challenges us. He helps us even when we fail. There are consequences to our sins
4. Avram received his blessings from God. Lot from the flesh by joining the sinners
5. Sin brings sin and destruction. It opens the door for demons. When we associate ourselves with sinners we suffer
6. God response to righteousness by blessings
7. We should not owe to the world
8. Put his faith, trust and believe in YHWH even though it seems impossible. He was counted as righteous on the basis of his faith
9. He took the breaking of the covenant consequences on himself and showed his love and mercy yet with consequences to sin

10. When we force the blessing by the flesh, they are severe consequences. We need to take responsibly for our actions
11. We cannot keep the covenant without God's help. We need to participate in our salvation and put our faith in action